

Pension Protection Plan

Have you thought of what happens if your plan to earn a pension is interrupted by a serious disabling sickness or injury?

The Pension Protection Plan is designed to pay the loss of Pension/Supplement and/or Retirement Benefit contributions due to a pre-mature injury or illness resulting in total disability from which the insured is not expected to recover.

What could your pension cover? Make sure it is there for you!

Health Care

Tuition

Family Care

Household Expenses

- Payments are made in a lump sum directly to you.
- Pays if you are disabled from an Illness and/or Injury.
- You have the option to sign up for benefits payable in the amounts of $50,000, $100,000 or $200,000.
